Join us for the 2011 Harlem Fine Arts Show (HFAS 2011), a continuation of the tradition of the National Black Fine Arts Show, which art aficionados have enjoyed at New York's Puck Building for 14 years.

HFAS 2011, sponsored by Amtrak and Grey Goose, is one of the largest and most prestigious collections of works featuring African American emerging and established artists from around the world. More than 100 artists and internationally renowned galleries will be featured including Poncho Brown, Leroy Campbell, Robert Carter, Najee Dorsey, Ray Grist, Woodrow Nash, Michele Wood, and E&S Gallery.

Susan L. Taylor, Editor-in-Chief Emeritus of Essence Magazine and DeMarco Morgan of WNBC-TV New York will host the Opening Gala Reception on Friday, February 25.

Past notable guests have included: Gayle King, Congressman and Mrs. Charles B. Rangel, Spike Lee, Manhattan District Attorney Cyrus Vance, New York City and State Government Officials, Oprah Winfrey and many others.

Open bar and hors d'oeuvres will be served. Ralph Lauren Center for Cancer Care and Prevention will receive a portion of the proceeds from the Opening Reception.

Prestigious HFAS 2011 partners include the Ralph Lauren Center for Cancer Care and Prevention, Brotherhood/Sister Sol, The Metro-Manhattan Chapter of The Links, Inc., The New York Times, NAACP, and Black Ivy Events Inc.
